W. W. DIMOND'S

It has been the wonder of dealers here what becomes of all of the stoves imported to Honolulu. Every vessel arriving brings from one to eighty (ours is the eighty lot), and very few of the stove men have old stock.

By our introduction of the "Jewel" Stoves and Ranges the importation of stoves will diminish, at the end of two years. We say two years, because by that time all other makes of stoves will have burnt or rusted out and their places will be taken by

We believe our $12 Jewel Stove is better than any on the market, as it has the following features:

- Large Wide Ovens, Quick Bakers.
- Handsome Carved Ornamentation in latest design.
- Tin Lined Heat Retaining Oven Doors.
- Large Broad Oven Shelf and Top Shelf.
- Nickel Oven Door Panels and Towel Rod.
- Large End Wood Feed Door.
- Long Continuous Fire Box for large Wood.
- Broad Smooth Hearth Plate.
- Heavy Covers and Centers.
- Cut Long Center that will not warp.
- Rods protected from contact with Fire.
- Cut Top Plate that will not crack.
- Kickers for opening Oven Do r with Foot.
- Has every essential feature for a serviceable stove.

NEW TRIAL IS ORDERED

DISPUTE OVER INSURANCE MONEY IN BANKRUPTCY CASE.

Several Probate Matters—Proceedings Before the Supreme Court—Eject-ment Decision.

A decision has been rendered in the case of James J. Byrne vs.
John Allen and others, partners in the Port Angeles Red Cedar Shingle and Lumber Company, defendants, and A. Peck, garnishee.
Justice Frear gives the unanimous opinion of the Supreme Court, granting a new trial on the appeal of the receiver and the gar-nishee. The receiver and defendants are residents of Washington State, while the plaintiff denied that he had recognized the receiver's appointment, also claimed that he was domiciled in these islands. The Court says that the prior attachment of the creditor will be sustained in preference to the claim of the receiver, if the creditor is a domestic creditor; otherwise, if he is a resident of the state in which the receiver was appointed and is bound by the order of its court. On this question the Court was not in possession of the facts, hence granted a new trial to ascertain them. Hartwell for plaintiff; Dickey for defendant.

In an opinion upon other phases of the same suit, the Court finds that mistakes were made in the plaintiff's accounts, but the trial judge did not err in giving judgment on the evidence, and orders a new trial unless the plaintiff remits $70.20 and interest. The litigation is in connection with work on the Waianae extension of the Oahu Railway.

Judge Carter has confirmed a sale of real estate at public auction for $1575 to Wong Wah Foy, by G. W. C. Jones and David Dayton, executors and trustees for the minor children under the will of Harriet N. Jones.

Judge Perry has approved the accounts of J. A. Magoon, guardian of James Love, which showed receipts of $2327.50 and payments of $3191.73, leaving a balance of $864.23 due the guardian.

The Supreme Court yesterday heard Barthrop vs. Kona Coffee Company. Little for plaintiff; Thurston & Stanley for defendant.

H. W. Schmidt has filed an answer to the bill of James W.
Lloyd, assignee in bankruptcy of Sing Moi Kee, to declare certain assignments, conveyances and transfers of property void. He claims that he is entitled to be paid $800 by the insurance companies, on policies assigned to him as security for a mortgage made by the bankrupt, alleging that when the mortgage was made there was no other incumbrance on the mortgagor's property, and that it was goods sold by H. W.
Schmidt & Sons on credit which enabled the mortgagor to start business.

Mrs. Fanny Love, guardian of two minor children, accounts for receipts of $12,343.32, and payments of $9573.40, leaving a balance of $2769.92.

Judge Perry has allowed the accounts and ordered the discharge of W. O. Smith, executor of the will of Alice F. Hitchcock.
Receipts $9535.03, payments $1-298.17, balance $2336.86. Thurston for plaintiff.

Judge Perry has ordered letters of administration to issue to Geo.
Washington Smith and J. E. Ka-hona on the estate of the late Addie N. Smith, under $300 bond each.
Kane for petitioner. The estate is valued at $13,000.

Judge Carter has rendered a decision in the ejectment cases of E. C. Macfarlane against the Trustees of the Bishop Estate and of the same plaintiff against W. F.
Allen. He finds for the Trustees in the first case and for Mr. Mac-

NINETY TINS OF OPIUM

FOUND IN POSSESSION OF HACK DRIVER MANUEL PERRY.

Captain Scott and Officer Cordes Are Wearing Feathers in Their Hats Since the Capture.

The way the prosecution of the case against the two Mexican girls for having opium concealed on their persons turned out was very disheartening to the officers concerned in their arrest, but they resolved to make one more effort to secure a conviction.
Manuel Perry, the well-known hack driver, has long been under suspicion for supposed operations in opium and the police have long been on his track.

Captain Scott and detectives Hammer and Cordes have been watching Mr.
Perry very closely since the arrival of the Australia, evidently thinking he had a consignment of "goods" to arrive on that vessel.
This morning at 5 o'clock Captain Scott and Cordes went to a certain house on King street and concealed themselves, one inside the door and the other just outside.
Officer Hammer was on watch outside looking for the expected hack which the officers knew Perry had taken out previously. In a few minutes the hack appeared.
Perry drove up to the gate and tied up to a post and then made for the house, carrying a sack in each hand. He opened the door and walked in, when Captain Scott placed his hand on his shoulder and told him to throw up his hands, while Cordes made his appearance from his place of concealment.

"Oh, Jesu Christo," said Perry, dropping both sacks, "It is all up with me."

Capt. Scott said he rather thought it was and proceeded to examine the contents of the two sacks he was carrying. As was expected a number of tins of opium were found. The officers then searched the hack but no more opium was found. The prisoner was then driven to the station house and locked up.

An examination of the sacks and their contents was then made.
There were in all ninety tins of opium; fifty tins were of the California brand now worth about $10 a pound and forty of the Hongkong variety worth twice as much. The latter was hermetically sealed but the California tins were not. Both sacks were dripping with salt water. The opium inside was wrapped in newspapers of late San Francisco dates in separate packages of ten tins each. The newspaper wrappings were pulpy with the sea water and the labels on the tins came off by pressing a finger on them, showing that the sacks and contents had been in the water for some time. Being still wet they must have been taken from the water a short time before they fell into the hands of the officers. The sacks used were new sugar sacks. From all these circumstances the officers have little doubt that the opium was brought here on the Australia and thrown overboard to await a favorable chance of getting it ashore.

It would seem as if the claim of the officials that they have a "dead cinch" on Perry was a good one, and they anticipate no trouble in convicting him. Some time ago he was given a warning from headquarters to let opium alone but he neglected it with the above results.

Manuel Perry was taken before Judge de la Vergne in the District Court this morning but the case went over until tomorrow.

A letter from Mr. Shehan, the former foreman of the Gazette Company, states that he has improved rapidly in health since his return to California and already gained 14 pounds in weight.

SANITARIUM PROSPECTS

DR. KELLOGG TELLS OF HIS IN- TENTIONS IN THE MATTER.

Temporary Quarters Secured on King Street—Only a Few Patients Can be Accommodated.

A BULLETIN reporter ran across Dr. Kellogg today and at once proceeded to interview him on Sanitarium prospects. The doctor responded with the information that he had just leased the Fernandes premises, now occupied by W. George Ashley and family, for a year and that as soon as they moved out he would establish himself there with his family.
In response to a question by the reporter he said he expected to be able to accommodate probably half a dozen patients at present, although he was not making any special efforts to do so. With regard to the main sanitarium he had only to reiterate the favorable impressions he had received on the railroad site, as detailed in a former interview. In a few days he was going to visit Tantalus and other locations which had been suggested to him, but it would be months before a definite decision was arrived at.

In response to a question as to how the local medicos would view such an establishment Dr.
Kellogg said: "I am glad you mentioned that subject. Our aim is to co-operate with the profession and not antagonize it. We treat mostly chronic cases, for which we have special facilities not obtainable by private physicians. That is one reason why we are going slow in starting the main sanitarium. We want the physicians of the islands to get acquainted with us and our methods, so that when we are ready to receive patients we shall have their influence to recommend them to us. We aim to go hand-in-hand with the profession everywhere and not against it in any way."

Japanese Wrestling.

The Japanese show, on the corner of Halekauilua and Richards streets, was well patronized last night. It consisted of a series of wrestling matches, probably a hundred in number, there being in the neighborhood of fifty contestants. It is a very interesting performance and entirely a novelty. A number of white people were there and were as excited over the bouts as the Asiatic portion of the spectators. Everything is very orderly, comfortable seats are provided, and the show is well worth the price of admission. The best time to go is about nine o'clock.

Wonderful Germination.

On the middle landing of the back steps of the Executive building, in the angle of the iron plates, a healthy cluster of ferns is growing. Its soil is only a slight deposit of sand and dust, conveyed there by the wind and people's feet, which the janitor's broom has left. People have wondered to see ferns growing out of lava in the crater of Kilauea, but their germination on an iron flight of steps is more wonderful still.

Bitten by a Dog.

While an inoffensive Chinese was walking down Queen street, near Allen & Robinson's this noon, a large and ferocious looking black dog bit him in the leg.
The Pake ran out into the street with the dog after him. Near the middle of the highway the animal made a spring, caught the Celestial by the chin and bit him severely, lacerating his face and throat in a terrible manner. The brute should be shot whomever he belongs to.

ROBERT LISHMAN'S PLIGHT

TROWN FROM A BRAKE AND HIS ARM BROKEN.

Picked Up Insensible by the Driver of One of Paul Isenberg's Milk Wagons.

Robert Lishman was found lying on the road to Koko Head, near the mouth of the Palolo valley, the night before last in an almost insensible condition. Near him lay an overturned cart and a horse which told the story. The discovery was made by the driver of one of Paul Isenberg's milk wagons, who recognized Mr. Lish-man and procured assistance to convey him to his home. The ride home seemed to revive him somewhat and Dr. Miner's attention did the rest. His left arm was found to be broken above the elbow and he was badly bruised on one side of the face. He knew nothing of the accident except that his arm was broken until yesterday when recollection returned to him. He says he was driving in a cart with long shafts such as is used in breaking horses and was leading another horse.
The led horse started to get in front and the horse in the brake swerved to one side to give him room, throwing the wheel of the brake against a boulder about four feet high. The force of the impact was sufficient to throw Mr.
Lishman clear out of the vehicle on one side of the road while the horse and brake went over on the other side. The horse was lying down, being held by the long shafts of the brake.

Mr. Lishman, who is 65 years old, is doing as well as can be expected considering that he was pretty badly shaken up in addition to getting his arm broken.

HAWAIIAN SCENES.

Hugo Fisher Makes a Grand Beginning on Local Subjects.

Hugo Fisher added a magnificent Hawaiian scene to his collection of paintings, now on exhibition at the Pacific Hardware Co's. rooms, today. It is a view of Manoa Valley from Hopkins' switch, on the road to Waikiki, done in water colors. The foreground is tropical, big, tall reeds and wild banana plants, backed by the wide level plain, grass grown and bright in coloring, with the valley proper, its sides enclosed by the high hills and precipitous mountain slopes, hemming in the gently undulating floor. Over and around the hill-tops the mists have gathered, and as the low clouds drift slowly above and across the beautiful valley the sunshine and shadow alternate in a superlatively pleasing manner. What a charming picture the original is to the visitor who views it from the transom roadway along the beach!
Happily, Mr. Fisher has transferred it to canvas without loss of either its charm or its lovely coloring.

Sailing of the Kinau.

A large crowd was down to see the Kinau off this morning. There was the usual lively time on the wharf before her departure; business people rushing down with belated letters, and others rushing on and off the boat to say goodbye to their friends who are off for a visit to the big island.
There were also a number of school boys and girls going away for their summer vacation, gaily bedecked with leis, and feeling happy that their studies were left behind. Quite a merry crowd of passengers altogether, and the BULLETIN wishes them a pleasant trip.

H. L. Achilles and family, C.
S. Desky and Judge Carter were among the Kinau's passengers this morning.
